The bank that was established more than a decade ago is expected to be winding down its operations by the end of the year as it faces an additional Rs 41,000 crore worth of litigation over the fraud. The loans were sanctioned in 2008-09 for the OMC Reliance Infra Limited (RIL) and OMC Power International Ltd (OMCPL) and they were utilised for infrastructure projects. According to a report published in the Economic Times, four of the six special purpose vehicles (SPVs) of the two companies — OMC Power Finance Ltd (OPFL), OMC Power Realty Ltd (OPRL), OMC Infrastructure Ltd (OMCL) and Omni Infra Projects Ltd (OIN) — were to be wound up and according to data available with the registrar of companies, only OMCPL remains in business. The article quotes Anil Kumar Jain, CEO of OPFL as saying that they were not aware of any outstanding dues against the companies and the merger with Axis Bank had been completed. According to a report in the Economic Times, the case related to OMC Power Finance Ltd (OPFL) is in the centre. The defaulting lenders of OPFL have indicated that they are willing to take the case to the higher courts but the India 82157476af
